

Office of the National Ombudsman

Regulatory Fairness Forum for the Asian American Pacific Islander Community Monday, July 28, 2014 | Atlanta, Georgia

A forum for small business owners to discuss federal regulations, compliance audits, regulatory fines, and enforcement actions impacting small businesses.

This Small Business Forum will facilitate a dialogue on federal regulatory issues impacting small businesses and highlight resources available to small business owners from the U.S. Small Business Administration and the SBA's Office of the National Ombudsman.

WHO: National Ombudsman Brian Castro will host a conversation with Atlanta area small business owners, and other representatives of the small business community.

WHAT: The National Ombudsman holds Regulatory Fairness roundtables and forums across the country to give small business owners a means to comment on unfair enforcement actions, government audits, and excessive fines or regulations. The Ombudsman directs specific issues raised by participants to the appropriate federal agency for a high-level fairness review, and works across government to address those concerns, reduce regulatory burdens, and help small businesses grow.

WHEN: Monday July 28, 2014
8:30 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.

WHERE: Martin Luther King Jr., Federal Building
77 Forsyth Street
Atlanta, GA 30303
Please bring Photo I.D. to enter the building

All members of the small business community, trade organizations, chambers of commerce, and media are invited to attend. Those wishing to report a federal regulatory concern confidentially will have the opportunity to do so privately at the forum.

RSVP (encouraged but not required) by clicking HERE by Wednesday, July 23.
